

Behold the Handmaid of the Lord

“And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.”

Luke 1:38 KJV.

Heavenly Father, who chose the Virgin Mary, full of grace, to be the mother of our Lord and Saviour: now fill us with your grace, that we in all things may embrace your will and with her rejoice in your salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect, Scottish Liturgy 1982.

This magnificent window of the Annunciation from Holy Trinity Church, Motherwell was created by Pauline A. Payne in 1960. With the artist's permission, the colour from the glass panes has been removed digitally to turn the artwork into a colouring sheet.

You are welcome to use this resource and share it freely. Please keep this file in its original and intended form, without seeking financial gain for its use.

Directions—print the following A4 page. Various art supplies will have a different effect depending on the paper, its weight, surface finish and manufacturing process. Copier paper (70-80gsm) would be sufficient for pens, pencils and crayons, thicker paper (100-120gsm) could accommodate felt tip markers, and 150+gsm paper could be used for inks and watercolours.

We would love to see your interpretations of the window. Please send photos to digitalmissioner@glasgow.anglican.org.
